Vice Chairman of Hospital Drive

CHARLES H. JOHNSON, JR.

Charles H. Johnson, Jr., president of the Lawrence Savings and Trust Co., will serve as vice-chairman of the $750,000 Jameson Memorial Hospital expansion fund appeal. General Chairman Alex Crawford Hoyt announced today.

A former president of the hospital board of directors, Mr. Johnson has been associated with many civic activities here. He is currently treasurer of the Community Chest.

"The need for additional hospital beds and facilities is the most urgent problem we in Lawrence County face today, and since Jameson Memorial Hospital belongs to the people of this area, it is up to us to see that the facilities we demand are provided," the vice-chairman declared.

"It would be foolhardy to wait any longer to provide these facilities. The situation we face right now, in the overcrowded condition of our hospitals, is one of the most dangerous any community could face."

Chairman Hoyt also announced today that a meeting of the campaign executive committee will be held at noon Tuesday in The Castleton hotel.

Final plans for the opening of the first phase of the campaign on December 10 will be discussed.

Marshall Will Make Reply To Molotov Charges

Preparing Answer To Charge Western Powers Want To Partition Germany

WILL BE PRESENTED IN NEXT FEW DAYS

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager
(International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The United States answer to Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's charges that the Western powers want to partition Germany is being drafted today by Secretary of State Marshall.

American delegation quarters reveal that Marshall, assisted by his staff experts, is whipping into shape a retort which is likely to dispel what apparently is false optimism that spread after last Wednesday's session.

It was Wednesday that the United States appeared to be acquiescing to Russian demands for immediate establishment of a central German government.

Ready In Few Days

Marshall's reply will be delivered to the Big Four foreign ministers conference in London within the next few days.

It will, authoritative quarters say, emphatically refute Molotov's implied charge of last week that the western powers want the parley to fail so they can partition Germany.

These sources said that Marshall will speak not only to Molotov, but over his head to the German people of the Soviet zone.

The American secretary will assure the Germans that the United States is opposed to partition and will not accept it as a permanent solution to the German problem.

He also will recall the American government's efforts to achieve political and economic unity for Germany, reminding the Germans of the offer made to the French

By FRANK B. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Sen. Johnson (D) Colo., wants the Senate Appropriations committee to investigate a report that nearly a quarter-billion dollars remains unspent of the 332 millions voted for Italy and Austria last May.

Johnson's inquiry came today as Congress reached the December 1 date set as a target by the State department for beginning the flow of interim-aid food to France, Italy and Austria with at least 10 days remaining, before authorization is completed.

By ROBERT PARKER

Withdrawal Of British Troops May Be Delayed

Reports Current That Troops May Remain In Palestine For Longer Time

By THOMAS C. WATSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Reports current in British foreign office circles today say that Britain will delay the withdrawal of troops from the Holy Land in expectation of violent repercussions to the partition plan.

It was learned exclusively by International News Service that the British army commander in Palestine has notified the foreign office that early withdrawal would be "impractical."

However, it was understood that Britain still expects to complete evacuation of its troops by August, 1948.

At the same time it was learned from authoritative resources in London that Britain has not yet set the exact date on which it will lay down its mandate.

These sources added that Britain's immigration policy in regard to the Holy Land will remain unchanged so long as she retains the mandate. (At present 1,000 Jews per month are permitted to enter Palestine.)

PALESTINE COMMISSION OF U. N. PREPARES TO HOLD EMERGENCY SESSIONS

EAST-WEST CONFLICT SEEN AS INCREASED

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The United Nations five nation Palestine commission prepared today to hold emergency sessions following Holy Land violence in the wake of General Assembly approval of partition.

High secretariat officials pressed the five nations—Bolivia, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Panama and the Philippines—to name their representatives quickly so that the commission can begin functioning. Czechoslovakia already has appointed Minister Plenipotentiary Karel Lisicky and the other nations are expected to follow suit promptly.

The deaths of 17 persons in Palestine in reaction to U. N. approval of the creation of Arab and Jewish states prompted authorities at Lake Success to aim at arranging for departure to the Holy Land of the commission in the next two or three weeks.

Session Of 1947 Ends

Anti-American Demonstrations Are Developed

U. S. Information Office Is Stoned And Also French Legation

MORE VIOLENCE IN PALESTINE (BULLETIN)

JERUSALEM, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Violent anti-American demonstrations occurred in the Lebanese capital of Beirut today and another young Jew was shot in Jerusalem in the wake of yesterday's fighting that cost 18 lives. The United Nations' decision to partition Palestine touched off the new Beirut demonstrations.

An estimated 10 thousand Arab students marched through the streets and stoned the United States information office and the French legation.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The London Evening Star reported that as a result of the demonstrations, the U. S. military attaché in Beirut had machine-guns placed around his office.)

The demonstrators carried Arab flags and posters which read: "Fire and steel is the only language the Zionists understand."

Anti-American Slogans

They shouted anti-American slogans, and were joined by thousands of other Arabs who went on strike in the cities of Tripoli and Saida as a protest against the Palestine partition.

A Syrian government spokesman addressed the Beirut demonstrators. He said the government is trying to meet a serious situation in accordance with resolutions passed by the Arab league council at its Beirut meeting in October.

The new shooting in Jerusalem occurred just outside the Damascus gate.

British High Commissioner Sir Alan Cunningham received Dr. Hussein Khalidi, secretary of the Arab higher committee, at government house.

Cunningham said that Britain will be responsible for a land order until withdrawal of troops next August. He added that he counted on the Arabs to do nothing that will conflict with British policy.

Labor Protests Payroll Tax

Labor representatives of New Castle met with Mayor John F. Haven and members of city council in the City building where labor expressed opposition to the proposed wage tax of 7½ mills for 1948.

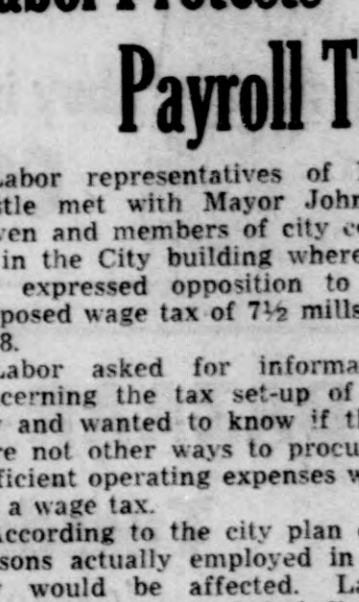

Labor asked for information concerning the tax set-up of the city and wanted to know if there were not other ways to procuring sufficient operating expenses without a wage tax.

According to the city plan only persons actually employed in the city would be affected. Labor pointed out that in their belief 50 percent of people employed, work outside the city and would escape the tax.

The resolution authorizing a wage tax ordinance will not be adopted until the first of the year and it will then require a certain time for the passage of the ordinance.

(Details of the meeting will be presented in The News on Tuesday.)

Plan Funeral For Ernst Lubitsch

Famed Motion Picture Director Dies Of Heart Attack In California Home

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Funeral services were being arranged today for Ernst Lubitsch, the man who made the "Lubitsch touch" synonymous with sophistication and cleverness in motion pictures.

The famed director died of a heart attack in his Bel-Air home yesterday. He was 55.

His body was found in a bathroom by his servant of many years, Otto Werner. Werner summoned a physician and a fire department inhalator squad, but the film executive was beyond help.

Lubitsch's death was a heavy blow to 20th Century-Fox, the studio to which he was under contract. He was in the middle of directing Betty Grable and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., in a costly production, "This Is the Moment."

The director had been under treatment for approximately four years for the heart ailment that ultimately killed him.

When first stricken he was warned that he faced death unless he greatly curtailed his activities. He retired from pictures for a year and reduced his enormous consumption of cigars to three a day.

When he returned to work he gave up, to a degree, his hard-driving style of directing. Lubitsch had been with 20th Century-Fox since signing a 15-year contract two years ago.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF UNITED NATIONS ENDS 47 SESSIONS

walk-out from the auditorium of the six Arab states.

Thirty-three nations went on record as endorsing the setting up of separate Arab and Jewish states by Oct. 1, 1948. These include previous abstaining and opponent countries like France, the Philippines, Liberia and Luxembourg.

The factions supporting partition, including the United States and Russia, were jubilant and convinced that despite the threatened Arab boycott of all U. N. steps in the Holy Land, a practical and successful solution will in the long-run manifest itself.

Britain lost no time, in urging the U. N. to hasten its commission to the spot in order to enable the British government to expedite Palestine evacuation plans.

East-West Conflict

In the eleven weeks of assembly sessions, the deep conflict between the East and West powers was accentuated and spiraled to what is tantamount to a parting of the ways between the United States and Russia.

Qualified observers predict that the common bond formed between the two great powers over Palestine partition will soon break in the strain and stress of putting partition into effect.

The Soviet bloc—Russia, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Byelo-Russia and the Ukraine—developed a new defiance policy against the West by announcing in the United Nations a boycott of U. N. commissions sent by the assembly to the Balkans and to Korea.

Soviet Bloc Boycott

The Soviet bloc also pronounced a boycott against the year-round "Little Assembly" approved along the lines of a plan suggested by U. S. Secretary of State Marshall to combat U. N. defiance and eventually to curtail the vicissitudes of the veto.

A striking and tacit agreement reached among the major powers was that of keeping silent during the 1947 assembly on atomic energy control and disarmament.

It was estimated that the raising of these two major issues would provoke a tremendous new storm of debate and discord between East and West, prolonging the 1947 session by several weeks.

Marshall will make it clear that if the partition comes Russia will bear the responsibility.

The statement is expected to be one of the most important Marshall will be called upon to make at this conference and, according to a U. S. delegation member, the secretary will "speak frankly."

Meanwhile, the split in the American delegation which developed at the Moscow conference as regards the Ruhr still is evident at this parity.

John Foster Dulles, Republican advisor to Marshall, wants to see the Ruhr controlled by the western allies, with an administration composed of the U. S., Britain, France and the "Benelux" powers.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American occupation chief in Germany, however, wants German management of the Ruhr industries, under Anglo-American control but with the U. S. having the main voice.

Clay takes the position that the American taxpayers are going to be called on to finance development of the Ruhr industries, and points out that the western Euro-

Firemen quickly raised ladders and ascended to the burning windows covered by protective screens of water which turned almost instantly to ice in the below-freezing temperatures.

At least 10 persons were carried down ladders, while other firemen assisted residents down a metal fire escape in the front and a stairway in the rear of the building.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

The age-old system of empire strength across the Mediterranean from the borders of continental Europe came up for another test of performance, as a result of France's decision to support the Soviet-American plan for partition of Palestine.

French Foreign Minister Bidault quite obviously is taking the stand that while this attitude would alienate a large segment of Arab opinion it would not make a very great deal of difference in the long run.

For Arab nationalism is asserting itself and presumably will continue to do so, regardless of what the cabinet in Paris may decide upon as a proper course of action.

Unconcern On This Score

Despite its own vast internal difficulties, France is able to look with at least some unconcern upon the possibilities of disorder in Palestine.

Her own military establishment in the colonial areas of the empire never have been seriously undercut, except in Syria where the French withdrew by mutual agreement with Great Britain.

But Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco are well-equipped.

The Foreign Legion is on duty as always—its ranks swollen by a great many former Nazi soldiers who like soldiering as a business and have not the slightest desire to return to Germany, either to work for the allies or do labor service under the Russians.

Highly Realistic View

The French invariably have taken a highly realistic view of North African and Middle East conditions.

They were less alarmed than many others when in one of his characteristic performances of buffoonery Benito Mussolini proclaimed himself "protector of Islam."

They had learned through long and hard experience just what it meant to maintain in the barren deserts and among rockstrewn Wadis a military force of a mere handful that none the less was capable of keeping the tricolor aloft.

Significant Fact

It is highly significant that amidst threatening strife in Palestine the French are concerning themselves chiefly with disorders at home, for the North African empire is to France a necessary reservoir of strength whose loss would be irreplaceable.

There seems to be a feeling that despite strikes in Paris and Marseille, crippling walkouts in the coal-pits, transportation tie-ups and a general stagnation in what is known as "metropolitan" France, the empire itself faces little danger of becoming unhinged.

The power and culture of the few in charge of French destiny abroad seem sufficient to cope with the dislocations of the present and the future.

PHYSICAL PROWESS IN YOUTH

Social prestige goes to the youth of physical prowess. Among boys, competitive athletic skills lead as sources of social esteem in the period preceding maturity.

This popular impression has been verified by numerous scientific studies under the guidance of Dr. Harold E. Jones, director of the Institute of Child Welfare, University of California. These and many other related studies will soon appear in his book, "Motor Performance and Growth."

Study of Teen-Ages

In an article by Dr. Jones in the December, 1946, issue of The Journal of Education Research he reports a study of 78 boys 17½ years old. He based the measures of physical abilities on strength of grip, pulling strength and thrusting strength. Then he studied the social and psychological characteristics and adaptations of these boys. He compared the ten strongest with the ten weakest of the group.

Nine of the ten boys in the "strong" group were above the average of the group in height and weight. "In body build they tended to be stocky, emphasizing height and weight rather than a stature." With two exceptions, their childhood health records were good. In athletic abilities eight were well above the group average.

Summary of Study

"The summary for the ten boys high in strength indicated a tendency for strength to be associated with a good physique, physical fitness, early maturing, social prestige and good personal adjustments. "Similarly, the ten boys low in strength showed a pronounced tendency toward an asthenic physique, late maturing, poor health, social difficulties and lack of status, feelings of inferiority, and personal maladjustment in other areas. Six of the ten boys were lagging in physiological maturing, and only one was early maturing. . . . None could be said to have 'robust' body structure, and the majority were far from robust in their health records. "Childhood diseases were numerous and severe in this group, with frequent colds, digestive upsets and other minor disorders during adolescence. In terms of their medical histories nine of the ten cases would be classified as exceptionally subject to illness."

For Young Parents

The meaning of the foregoing facts for young parents is obvious. Practically every parent dreams of the baby or young child growing as a likable person enjoying the esteem of his fellows. This ambition of the parent—the child grows older, with a climax during adolescence.

Of course there are certain hereditary limitations. Yet very few children, if any, enjoy the best possible physical development. For the child's nutrition and health habits the parents are chiefly responsible. Wisely, they seek the guidance of the medical expert. But for using all their wisdom and assistance well they must guide the child well, winning his cooperation. As you see, practically everything discussed in this column day after day, year after year, is related to this matter. My special bulletin, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

The Case Of Maj. Gen. Meyers

By PAUL GALLICO

It has been a long time since a character quite so unappetizing has wandered across Page One of the nation's press as Major General Benny Meyers, and, if one reads the signs rightly, he is about to receive his come-uppance for a series of venal shenanigans with the "peepul's" dough, or at least he will go on trial for them.

An unpleasant fellow, the Generalissimo, of his own testimony, and one you would not care to have on your calling list. In all probability, society will get its own back from him for a variety of breaches of public mores, but I hope you will not take it amiss of me, if, in the interests of justice, I point out that while the war was going on the Generalissimo was doing a whiz-bang of a job as chief watchdog over airplane production for the Materiel Command at Wright Field, charged with blitting airplane companies into delivering the required number of airplanes per week, per month and getting them onto the firing line when most needed.

Was Production Man

Do not mis-read this essay as a defense of Brother Meyers, but when we catch a fellow in high office who has been up to something sticky by his own admission, the tendency is to come down on him with both feet, paint him all black as a villain unregenerate, and add to his dossier any unsolved murders, post office robberies and bank hoists that happen to be lying around, and, as long as we are hanging him, hang him but good and for everything in sight.

We are in the process of overlooking the fact that when the chips were down and we needed airplanes, airplanes and more airplanes like a starving man needs food, Benny Meyers was functioning as a brilliant production man and a giant of the procurement business. I spent a morning with him in his office in Washington during the war when I was writing a series of articles about the Materiel Command at Wright Field and the miracle that had been accomplished in building the world's greatest air force in three years from scratch. Benny Meyers had his share in that miracle. For four hours I watched and listened as he juggled his complicated production charts like a man playing a bridge hand, finessing through weakness, forcing through strength, cheery, cajoling, maneuvering, commanding those manufacturers of badly needed airplanes so that the planes would appear on the vital fronts on time and save American lives.

Only a genius could have kept that number of figures, graphs and information in his head at one time, and a genius for figures Benny Meyers was—at the time and at the place where he was needed.

Too Fast For Own Good Unfortunately, it is often the case that these lightning calculators and mental lalaloosers are a little too fast for their own good. The too rapid spinning of high pressure thinking machine shakes cracks into the moral facade and the owner thereof winds up in the dock. The line where real genius functions for good or evil is often a fine one. Such genius as Meyers displayed in his job was in itself an abnormality, but one that was highly useful to us in the time of our need, and which delivered the goods.

So, now that that is settled, let us get on with the prosecution of this unfortunate and nasty fellow whom all of us are in the process of disliking much more for his offense against good taste in naming a lady than for any allegedly hanky-panky with the public funds. But if we are going to tack him to a cross, let's pin him up there for what he actually did that was wrong, and not for what he didn't do.

To complain that while our boys were dying on foreign fields he was safe and secure in an office in Washington is spurious and maudlin hypocrisy, and muddles the issue. The truth is that a lot fewer of our boys died because Meyers focus-poused those airplanes out onto the line. If we can give the Devil his due, we can probably do the same for this poor specimen without too badly fracturing our sense of morality.

BETTER GO TO WORK

An indulgent father had a well-meaning but weak-willed son who failed to make good on various jobs and financed himself by writing worthless checks. After taking up a large amount of this spurious paper, as a matter of family pride, the father finally put it up to the son to go to work or go to jail.

This recollection is suggested by certain States of Europe, who unblushingly confess their dependence on the United States more than two years after the end of the war which they blame for their misfortunes. To begin with, there is no possible moral obligation on this country for the plight of the war-victim nations. On the contrary we saved them from the ultimate vengeance of Hitler and his Nazis. We had nothing to do with the beginning of this war, and we had only the most unselfish motives in helping to win it. We asked nothing; we got nothing.

Notion Prevalent In Europe

But somehow there is a notion almost universally prevalent in Europe that we must carry the full responsibility for a war with whose beginnings we had nothing to do and for whose ending we gave the most. In extenuation of this notion it must be conceded that our phrase-making Mr. Roosevelt, with his glittering generalities about freedom and plenty for all peoples,

At eight or nine, if he were wise, Sat still and seldom ran. Had weariness within his eyes, Like you, he'd be a man. And if he ate with proper grace, The best of manner knew, Washed willingly his hands and face, He'd be as old as you.

Though fond of candy, cake and pie, If he were strong of will, And let a little satisfy—Lest much should make him ill—When playing, if he didn't shriek, As youngsters often do, But always softly thought to speak, He'd be as old as you.

Time was you raced the place about, With strength and ardor fired, And just as loudly used to shout, Time was you seldom tired, Why now command in manner grim, A grownup he should be? Remember, you were just like him When you're young as he.

Administration Moving To Left?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—There have been some American Presidents who made their own decisions, evolved their own ideas, formulated their own policies, economic as well as political, and were independent of any group of "inner-circle" advisers. They, of course, had their "close friends" and administration intimates. But they did not ask them; they told them.

ON the other hand, most of our Presidents have relied upon advisers, in and out of their Cabinets. Their course has been shaped by the counsel of the men by whom they were surrounded. Unquestionably, Mr. Truman is one of these. That is why it seems important to know and understand the position of the individuals who have greatest influence with him, some of whom are not important for any other reason.

AT this time it is generally acknowledged that those most influential are Mr. Clark Clifford, of Missouri, counsel to the President; Mr. Gael Sullivan, assistant chairman of the Democratic National Committee, also of Missouri; Senator McGrath, the new chairman; Secretary of the Interior Krug, Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach and Attorney General Hannegan. This, including the recently resigned Postmaster General Harney, is the group which induced Mr. Truman to veto the Taft-Hartley bill last summer. The Cabinet members who thought this a mistake included Mr. Forrester, Mr. Harriman, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Snyder, and Mr. Patterson, then Secretary of War. These were the nonpolitical and—most people will agree—the ablest members of the Truman Cabinet. But it was the Hannegan-Sullivan-Clifford group which prevailed then and it was this group which prevailed again in the President's message sent to Congress on the opening of the special session in which he presented his piecemeal program of price control.

THERE were several reasons this program was widely regarded as political. First, few informed persons believe there is much chance of getting Congress to accept these recommendations or that Mr. Truman did not know this; second, no competent economist believes that they would work if accepted; third, the advisers who urged this program on the President were mostly politicians as "reactionary" as the Truman recommendations would make it possible effectively to charge that the Republicans, by refusing Mr. Truman's requests for controls, are responsible for continued high prices and inflation.

THIS is the issue upon which they propose to wage the 1948 campaign. This is the foundation upon which they hope to fight. And the group responsible for the message are somewhat jubilant over their success in laying it down. However they have plans to expand and strengthen this foundation in the next message which the President must send to Congress when it convenes in regular session five weeks hence. They already are at work on this, and an authoritative forecast is that it will make Mr. Truman "liberal" in a big way. If the advice of the Sullivan-McGrath-Clifford advisers prevails this time, as it has in the past, Mr. Truman will come out strongly as a sort of second Roosevelt, a "new New Dealer," a crusader for the masses and champion of the "common man."

THERE will be various recommendations designed to appeal to the left—and particularly to labor. He will urge broadening of social security, large Federal health, education and housing programs, regulation of monopolies and curbs on "big business." He will oppose a reduction in taxes except on the low-income groups. In brief, there will be no comfort in the message for conservatives or even semi-conservatives in either party. The political strategy as evolved by the President's advisers is to "let the conservatives go Republican, concentrate their efforts on labor and the 'liberals,' leaving no excuse for a left-wing third party movement by Mr. Wallace or anyone else.

AS in the case of his special-session message, the President's advisers know that only a small part of his recommendations for the regular session will get through. But the decision to go to the left has been definitely made. That, they think, is the only way to win the election. That, they think, will brand the Republicans as "reactionary," keep them on the defensive, rally all the old Roosevelt elements behind the Democratic ticket. The party publicity is already being geared to this end.

BEYOND doubt, the new message, like the last one, will be politically inspired. Whether it turns out to be good politics remains to be seen. Much, of course, depends on the Republicans—how effectively they counterattack, the quality of their record in the next session and the character of their candidate. But the main question is whether the country as a whole, which for sixteen years past has been taken toward the left, wants to continue in that direction or turn the other way. At any rate, it is to be hoped that voters will be given a choice—which they certainly did not have in the last two campaigns.

They Say

PARIS — General DeGaulle's spokesman looks at strike-torn France "The general anticipates he will be in control of the French government within a couple of weeks. Today's anarchy was just what he expected under the present constitution."

LONDON — British Foreign Secretary Bevin warns Russian Foreign Minister Molotov against continued delay in working out a solution of Germany's future: "If peace is to be denied we cannot be expected to stand by inactive."

BUENOS AIRES — Former Heavyweight Champion Gene Tunney is asked whether his admiration for Argentine President Peron includes Peron's political actions: "Some countries are already ripe for democracy, others may be ripe only years hence."

FLUSHING MEADOWS, N. Y. —

Colombia's U. N. delegate, Alfonso Lopez, says the Palestine partition plan is not acceptable: "It does not forebode well for the plan that it has been rejected by the entire Moslem world—by 400 million persons of one religion."

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

Secretary Harriman says he hopes for a drop in the price of meat. And this time right before Christmas is a good time to express all our little hopes and wishes.

But I'm not sure whether Harriman's hope was addressed to us or Santa Claus.

The secretary recommends "voluntary curtailment of meat consumption" . . . this is the fourth popular revision of Sen. Taft's unpopular recommendation to "eat less" . . . but we like our grits with a little honey on 'em.

But as I understand it now, Mr. Truman would like to have several powers which he has no intention of using . . . it makes a kind of sense these days.

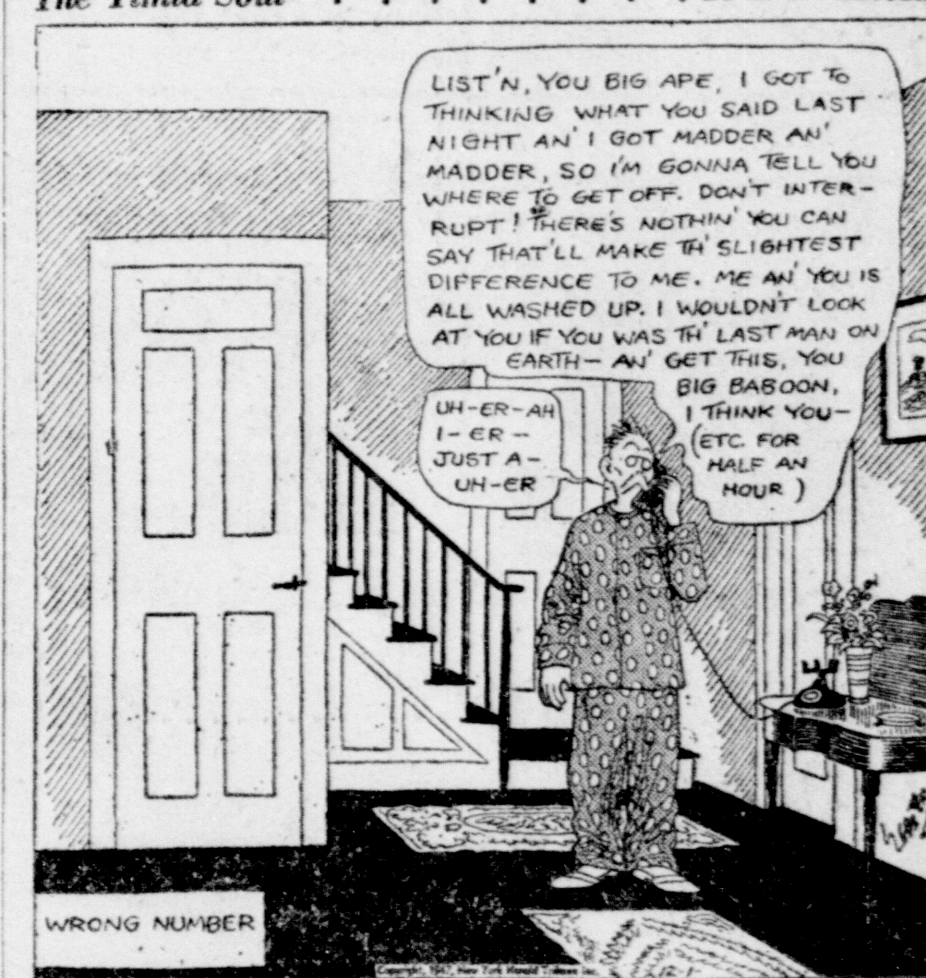

Still we aren't having as much trouble with commies as Italy and France . . . where their's are very tough, ours too bashful to even admit they are commies.

And DeGaulle stands ready to save France . . . provided it collapses enough.

Our curiosity always triumphs over experience when we receive notice of a postage-due letter.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

CHILD TRAINING

"I have a baby just approaching two years. Can you give me some advice on child-training? That is, politeness to elders, proper speech, voice training—all possible hints. I should like my child to be well-brought-up."

Answer: There is nothing so charming and delightful as an unspoiled child. And what is a greater rarity today?

The child with proper home-training (whether it be of the technique propounded by modern psychologists or that of the old school) is a delight to have around. An untrained, sulky, selfish child is never welcome for very long. Begin as soon as your child is able to walk and insist that it answer politely when spoken to: "Yes, Mother," "No, Mother," "Yes, Aunt Helen," "No, Mrs. Smith," should become second nature to him, instead of the blunt "yes" and "no."

Require also that your child say: "Thank you" and "please" when asking for something and receiving it. Teach him the art of properly receiving introductions... shaking hands and saying "how do you do." Children are made self-conscious by such usages only when they learn them too late—particularly during their period of adolescence. As soon as your child learns to talk, correct him whenever his voice comes too shrill. Children are inclined to talk in nasal tones which must be constantly corrected.

Make him share his toys with others, so that he will not become selfish. This is important, especially to an only child. Never let him answer back saucily, but do not break his spirit by depriving him of the right to make explanations when he is in the right. See that his table manners are as inoffensive as his age warrants. And as soon as he is able to conduct himself properly, let him have meals (at least some of them) with his elders that he may become used to them and not turn shy when you take him visiting. The training we receive in our early childhood remains with us forever.

Present your problems to Miss Markel, who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

PITTSBURGH WOMAN SUICIDE VICTIM

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—(INS)—The Allegheny county coroner's office said today that Mrs. Bessie L. Bachrach, 48, of Pittsburgh, who was found dead of carbon-monoxide poisoning in her car in Frick park Sunday, was apparently a suicide.

A hose was found leading from the exhaust of the auto through an almost closed window.

She is survived by her widower, three children and two brothers. Funeral services will be held this afternoon.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

may have raised hopes beyond rational fulfillment.

On the practical side, however, we have contributed in two years since the war's ending about twenty billion dollars in relief to these expectant victims. In return, what have we received? Half a dozen beneficiaries of our generosity have gone Communist and aligned themselves with Russia. England has gone frankly Socialist. France and Italy hovering between left and right—and clamoring for United States millions to forestall Communism. Of all the peoples we have helped—with Greece waiting in the balance—not one has joined definitely with us in our purpose to perpetuate democratic government, or really help themselves.

Any sensible and honest father, after supporting a work-shy and check-bouncing son for so long a period, must reach some conclusion. He must either put a limit on his generosity or face the necessity of going bankrupt.

That, in my opinion, is about the situation facing our big-hearted Uncle Sam today. He should quit signing blank checks for Europe—and accepting rubber checks for their bills—and let the pampered population help to pay their way.

HEALTH NEWS

and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite, Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Druggless Health

REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO OIL, NO ALCOHOL, NO OIL. ONLY nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hippocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy, see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Wonder Minerals

MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, when the sexual powers weaken, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. It could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain of these ills. Doctors send people to mineral springs to find cure or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Amazing Results

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wonderful springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young. GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your elimination from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE IT! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize its value. GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines thoroughly, relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. After these poisons are out of the system, and the kidneys purified, we begin to feel the arthritis and rheumatism leaving, and Nature starting to complete the recovery.

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Come to this drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money. GEO-MINERAL Retail Price: 1 Bottle $1.10 6 Bottles $6.00

Warning By Police Chief

Hanna Warns Motorists To Prepare For Hazardous Road Conditions

Pointing to huge increases in traffic death rates during winter over other seasons of the year, Chief of Police, Robert D. Hanna, today warned motorists to prepare for hazardous winter and road conditions ahead.

"Drive slow in rain, sleet or snow, because traffic accident rates increase 24 to 53 per cent during snow and ice months," Chief Hanna said. "And, with more vehicles operating this winter than ever before, every driver must ready his seasonal safety equipment and be on the double alert."

In cooperation with the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the chief urged study proven methods which will help reduce the toll of deaths, accidents and traffic tieups caused by disregard for snow, ice and poor visibility.

"Only serious consideration of these fundamental rules, based on scientific research and tests by the National Safety Council, will save drivers and pedestrians a lot of unnecessary trouble and sorrow," Chief Hanna added.

Rules Given
1. Get the "feet" of the road surface when you start out. Test braking and acceleration ability when no other cars are near and before you are faced with an emergency.

2. Reduce speed when road surfaces are snowy or icy so you can stop in time. Remember at only 20 miles per hour it takes 4 to 12 times more distance to stop on snow or ice as on dry concrete.

3. Keep windshield and windows clear of snow and ice on the outside, fog and frost inside. Check your defroster and wipers.

4. Use steel tire chains when snow or ice conditions generally prevail. They reduce braking distances for cars and trucks from 40 to 70 per cent, and provide "go" traction often needed to start or climb hills.

5. Carbon monoxide poisoning is dangerous! Never warm your car up in a closed garage. Check exhaust system and floor boards for leaks. Old manifold type heaters should not be used unless frequently examined for leaks and other defects.

6. Good tire treads are desirable because they improve stopping on wet pavement, but don't depend on even new treads or rubber chains to help on ice or packed snow. Tests showed "rubber tire chains" while nice and quiet, actually skid further than bare tires on packed snow or ice.

The hammerhead, an African bird, builds a nest that requires six months to construct.

ANNOUNCE RESULTS OF POTATO COMPARISONS

Results of comparisons of sixteen potato varieties in five counties—Clarion, Lancaster, Lehigh, Potter, and Schuylkill—are announced by the extension specialists of the Pennsylvania State college.

The highest yielding potato was a new variety, Essex, which was first for all the tests with an average yield of 543 bushels an acre. It is a late-season, white tuber, fairly uniform, and blight-immune potato. It is not immune to other foliage diseases or to insects.

Teton, which is very resistant to ring-rot, but is not blight immune, stood fourth in the comparisons with a yield of 459 bushels an acre.

Among the well-known varieties, Russet Rural ranked twelfth with 389 bushels an acre, and Katahdin stood thirteenth with 385 bushels.

Of the four blight-immune seedlings developed in the Pennsylvania State College breeding program, BN5 looked good but more testing is needed and seed is not available.

MANURE STORAGE GOOD INVESTMENT

The fact that saving of plant food in farm manure deserves careful attention emphasizes the need for efficient handling of this farm resource.

It would be very desirable to have a covered manure storage with a tight, concrete bottom into which the manure could be dumped from the carrier or wheelbarrow, and where it could be held with a minimum of loss when conditions were not satisfactory for immediate hauling and spreading.

Such a structure need not be expensive and would soon repay its cost in fertility saved. In many instances materials already on hand could be used and the construction done by farmers themselves and their regular labor supply. Assistance with the plans can be furnished by the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Building. Such a storage adds greatly to the appearance and neatness of the farmstead—evidence of thrift and good management.

If the manure is to be removed by hand, a manure storage should not be more than 16 feet wide with access for the spreader on both sides. Or, it may be so constructed that the spreader can be driven inside for loading, and for storage when not in use.

With the increasing popularity and use of tractor-mounted manure loaders, provision could well be made for getting such equipment into the storage for easy loading. While not every farmer can afford a loader, the job of loading, along with spreading, may become a custom operation. Handling the manure with loaders, farmers report, takes even more of the drudgery out of dairying.

First Cold Wave Brings Shortage Of Natural Gas

Manufacturers Light And Heat Company Orders 50 Per Cent Reduction In Consumption

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—(INS)—A cold wave which struck western Pennsylvania over the weekend brought the area's first serious fuel crisis of the winter today when one gas company announced it was cutting supplies to 150 industrial plants by 50 per cent.

Another company warned of possible curtailment if the cold wave continues today.

However, Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., which had notified the 150 firms to reduce consumption by 50 per cent, said that if warmer weather, which has been forecast, arrives today, the order would be modified to a 25 per cent reduction.

Last year, thousands of employees of industrial firms in the tri-state area were idled by curtailment of fuel gas supplies when companies ordered cuts during cold snaps to conserve fuel for domestic use.

Music Club To Present Messiah

Oratorio To Be Given By Large Chorus For Ninth Consecutive Year

WILL BE SUNG ON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14

The Music club chorus will present for the ninth consecutive year Handel's oratorio "The Messiah" in the First Methodist church, on Sunday, December 14, at 8 p. m. The chorus of 150 voices is directed by Mrs. William J. Caldwell, whose fine sense of musical leadership and comprehension make it a great privilege to be a member of the chorus. This feeling is evidenced by the fact that 15 communities are represented and members from the choirs of thirty different churches are singing in the presentation of "The Messiah" this season.

Indications are that this year's will be the finest performance the chorus has yet given of this glorious, majestic oratorio.

In connection with the New Castle performance it is noteworthy that the Oratorio Society of New York City on December 20 will present "The Messiah" without cuts from the original manuscript corrected by Dr. J. M. Cooper-Smith, musicologist.

Sing 16 Choruses
The New Castle chorus will sing 16 choruses, including the well known and familiar "For Unto Us A Child Is Born," "Behold The Lamb Of God," "Hallelujah," and the not so familiar "He Shall Purify," "His Yoke Is Easy" and "His Sound Is Gone Out!" Accompanists will be those two accomplished and brilliant musicians, Mrs. Richard K. Allen at the piano and Edwin Lewis at the organ.

This year arrangements have been made to increase the seating capacity for the presentation.

The Ministerial Association will sponsor this sacred performance this year as in previous years and many churches dispense with their evening service in order that their congregations may take advantage of the opportunity to listen again to the glory and majesty of George F. Handel's "The Messiah". The performance is open to the public.

The first permanent settlement at Columbus, O., capital of the state, was made by Lucas Sullivan and party in 1797, and was named Franklinton. The city was platted in 1812, and in the first capitol building the legislature first met in 1816.

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 1. — Ann Bythe knows how to swim, but she's due for new lessons.

That's because of the chore Ann has ahead of her in "Mr. Peabody And The Mermaid." Universal-International technicians have finally completed the fish tail Ann must wear all through the picture and they're anxious to see how quickly the little beauty can learn to use it efficiently. It's made of sponge rubber and weighted with a little lead.

Ann will begin her practice as a mermaid as soon as she completed her current role in "Another Part of the Forest." Her new picture, with William Powell, probably won't begin until after Jan. 1, with some of the underwater sequences to be shot at Weekiwahe Springs, near Tampa, Fla.

Ingrid Works Hard
Ingrid Bergman intends to devote twice as much time to the screen as she does to the stage. "I have no intention of deserting Hollywood; my home is here," declared the lady who made such a smash hit on Broadway in "Joan of Lorraine," her first play since 1941.

Ingrid said she had no stage plans in mind at the moment. When she completes "Joan" for Walter Wanger, she plans to rest until she leaves for England May 1 to make "Under Capricorn" with Alfred Hitchcock.

Dotty To Keep Busy
Dorothy Lamour plans to keep busy next year. Just completing "Lulu Belle" for Ben Boggs, she'll take the next few weeks off to have time for shopping and so she can enjoy the holidays with her husband and their two and a half year old son.

Then 1948 will be taken up with musical for Columbia and pictures for RKO and Paramount.

Dottie's youngster was brought on the set by his nurse as I was leaving.

Dottie put her arms around him and said, "Give mamma a kiss."

"I don't wanna," he said. "Can't the male animal be perverse?"

Jean Coming Home
George Montgomery makes his first picture with his wife, Dinah Shore, early next year. Dick Haymes completes "Up in Central Park" with Deanna Durbin for U-I next week and plans a two months' vacation.

Now that John Ridgely is playing an army officer for Paramount in "Sealed Verdict," he's used his talents at every single studio in town.

Jean Peters hopes she'll complete "Deep Waters" for 20th Century-Fox in time to return home to help direct "The Christmas Carol" at East Canton, O., high school.

Cesar Romero had the armful of the week. He carried Betty Grable across a threshold in "This Is the Moment."

Communists Warn Italian Premier

De Gasperi Given Warning
That He Must Accede To
Demands Of Milanese
Communists

ROME, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi was warned today that unless he accedes to demands of a Communist delegation from the industrial center of Milan, "the restless mood of Milanese workers may explode."

The threat came from the Communist-dominated Milan Chamber of Commerce which last week called a general strike in the city in cooperation with Communist seizure of the Prefecture offices.

The violence was in protest to proposed government transfer of allied Communist Prefect Ettore Troilo to a United Nations post. The Communists claim that the transfer would constitute dismissal.

Start Bargaining

In an uneasy truce with the military, the Milan insurrectionists turned over their positions to provincial police and sent a delegation to bargain with De Gasperi's government.

This "Citizens Committee" demands that Troilo remain in his post "until the March elections."

If this demand is definitely turned down by De Gasperi, a "last alternative" is expected to be offered the Communists by Interior Minister Mario Scelba.

He will suggest that a "political Prefect," chosen by left-wingers, share authority with a government-named Prefect.

Meanwhile, a triple guard of Carabinieri—militarized provincial police—and guards patrolled Rome's streets.

Other units searched the countryside for hidden caches of Communist arms and munitions.

TRINITY RECTOR TO BE INSTALLED

Bowman, Rector of St. John's Episcopal church of Sharon. Other Clergy of the Diocese will be in the procession as will Messrs. Lloyd Strayer and Robert Garland, Senior and Junior Wardens of the Parish, respectively. They will act on behalf of the congregation of Trinity church in the service of the institution.

Came On October 15

Coming to Trinity Episcopal church on October 15, this is the first open date for the Office of Institution to be conducted for Fr. Hovencamp. The parish choir under the direction of Miss Isabel Johnson will sing the Tallis Setting of Evensong during the service with an organ prelude to take place. During the offertory the anthem "O Lord Most Holy" will be played. The organ postlude hymn will be entitled "Largo" by Handel.

Following the service a reception will be conducted by the congregation for the Bishop in the guild hall of the church. The reception will be sponsored by Trinity Junior Guild.

Fr. Hovencamp came to this city from Grace church, Cortland, N. Y., where he had a very successful parish for six years. In addition to his pastoral duties there he had many civic responsibilities and is prominent in Rotary circles. He is an alumnus of Portsmouth, Ohio high school and St. Stephen's college at Annandale-on-Hudson. He also completed work at Western Seminary, Evanston, Ill.

ANTI-AMERICAN DEMONSTRATIONS ARE DEVELOPED

The concrete measures planned by the British to maintain order and guarantee the security of Arabs in certain areas.

Tribesmen Swarm Down

The Holy Land seethed with Arab danger as heavily armed tribesmen swarmed down from the hills of Central Palestine, apparently ready to wage "holy war."

With at least 18 persons already slain in violence in Palestine and neighboring Arab countries, more than 600 Arab students marched from the Jaffa gate to the Damascus gate in Jerusalem, chanting: "Down with the United Nations, down with the United States."

In front of the Saudi Arabian consulate, the demonstrators—ranging in age from 15 to 18—shouted their demands that American oil contracts be cancelled.

The demonstration followed yesterday's attack by Arab mobs upon the American and French legations in the Syrian capital of Damascus, where a Soviet-Syrian center also was raided and a Communist party headquarters demolished.

Demonstration In Cairo

(Reuters reported a similar student demonstration in Cairo. There, for the second successive day, students of Fuad Ali Awad university marched in the heart of the city, shouting:

"Palestine for the Arabs. Down with the United Nations." Arab demonstrators in the Holy Land and Syria attacked the legations of three of the Big Four powers which supported the Palestine split into Arab and Jewish states.

Syrian Arabs stormed the American and French legations in Damascus, tore down the Stars and Stripes and set fire to three automobiles outside the U. S. building. They hurled rocks at the French offices.

(The London Daily Telegraph reported that five Syrian Communists and three Arabs were slain in a gun battle in Syria's capital when marauding Arabs wrecked local Communist party headquarters. Ten Communists were reported wounded.)

Ten Jews were killed by Arabs in shooting in scattered parts of Palestine in a day of terror following announcement of the U. N. action.

Strong police detachments reportedly prevented enraged Arabs from reaching the Russian embassy in Damascus, but the mobs succeeded in demolishing the official Soviet-Syrian cultural center and attacking the Belgian bank.

Transformers Are Replaced At Pulaski Road Sub-Station

Transformers at the Pulaski road Substation of Pennsylvania Power Company have been replaced to provide additional capacity for anticipated increased demands. A transformer failed at this substation caused a service interruption on the north side of the city two weeks ago.

Service Sunday was supplied to the area by interconnecting lines from the West Side Substation on West Washington street while the new transformers were put in place and connected.

It has been determined that the transformer which failed two weeks ago had a faulty winding. The winding had apparently been weakened by lightning at this substation time, but operated satisfactorily until the failure occurred.

Navy Extends Deadline For Re-Enlistments

Chief Machinist's Mate S. E. Bond of the New Castle Navy Recruiting station announced today that the Navy department has extended to 31 March 1948 the date, whereby most of the former petty officer ratings may re-enlist in the Navy in the rate held at time of discharge or at a lower petty officer rating provided they meet all other qualifications.

Chief Bond also announced that he is prepared to give the electronic aptitude test to any high school senior or graduate who is interested in the field of electronics. Personnel taking this examination are under no obligations to the naval service, but if they are successful in passing this exacting test they are qualified mentally for entrance to the Navy's famous electronic technician's school.

Frank Criley Dies At Verona, N. J.

Word has been received here by Mrs. William E. Harris of 2310 Highland avenue of the death of Frank Criley, 61, of 61 Hillside avenue, Verona, N. J. Mr. Criley was a famous deep sea diver and had been decorated many times for his exploits. He was married to a niece of Mrs. Harris, the former Miss Anna E. Moody formerly of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Criley held the world's record for twenty five years for the deepest dive. In 1915 he went down 306 feet to rescue a fellow diver who had become snarled up at 250 feet, near the wreck of the submarine F-4 near Kailiki Beach, Honolulu.

He was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Navy Cross, Congressional Life Saving Medal, the Italian Red Cross Medal, the Cuban Pacification medal, and three Navy Good Conduct Medals.

Some years ago with Mrs. Criley he visited in New Castle.

ASKS PROBE OF STATUS OF FOREIGN AID FUND

Johnson challenged the effect of the reportedly unspent money on domestic economy if it's impact is added to the 597 millions. Johnson said he wrote Appropriations Chairman Bridges (R) N. H., asking that the committee determine whether only 100 millions of the Italy-Australian aid actually has been spent. He said:

"The point is whether we have enough food to take care of expenditures of 332 million dollars plus 597 million dollars without creating a shortage here at home."

Senate President Vandenberg (R) Mich., told Johnson in floor debate that he understood that while they may not have been actually spent, the funds have been "substantially obligated."

In an interview, Johnson proposed also that long-range aid to Europe be directed toward bringing vast areas of Africa controlled by European countries into food production.

Johnson declared that United States cannot launch a long-range program "as generous as the President recommends" without reimposing price controls at home. He advocated only a "purely relief" program, with aid being furnished only in winters.

Women Greater Stockholders Than Men Survey Reveals

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Women may stay home, but that does not prevent them from having their fingers in the business pie.

The number of women stockholders in public-owned companies is impressive; in many of the large organizations, the total women security holders is greater than men.

While it is true women come into possession of securities mainly through inheritance or gift, it is difficult to understand the passive attitude many women take in respect to their holdings. Many of them just "drift" with their securities, not having any idea about market prices and individual company developments. Only a relatively small number of women are followers of financial statistics.

It is generally believed that if a count could be made of all stockholders in the United States, 50 per cent would be women. A recent survey of five Pittsburgh corporations showed that two had more women stockholders than men.

DID JUSTICE TRIUMPH?

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(INS)—So many marriage ceremonies have been performed by Justice of the Peace Harvey E. McDonald while standing on the same spot, that the floor of his office finally gave way under the strain while he joined a couple in wedlock. The judge flatly denied that the weight of his responsibilities had anything to do with the collapse.

Urge Rebuilding Of Road Between Lancaster-Capital

HARRISBURG, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Lt. Gov. Daniel B. Strickler today urged the State Highway Department to rebuild the 35-mile long so-called turnpike between Harrisburg and Lancaster.

The highway, originally laid down more than 150 years ago when the nation's frontier was being pushed westward, was antiquated, dangerous and said the department should be given "top priority" in the department's reconstruction program.

In a letter to Gov. James H. Duff, Strickler said the rebuilding was not to be undertaken at the expense of the proposed extension to Philadelphia of the Pennsylvania Turnpike between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

The department's "patchwork" plans for improving the Lancaster-Harrisburg route (Route 230) were "unsatisfactory," Strickler asserted.

"This section of the highway has been neglected for a long time," he declared, "and should be modernized by not less than a three-lane highway the entire distance from Harrisburg to Lancaster."

"The extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike from Carlisle to Philadelphia will not lessen the need," Strickler declared.

The Lancaster-Harrisburg route has been modernized in stretches with three lanes but a dual roadway was the basis for one of the major highways to eastern Pennsylvania, he explained.

To keep them ready for any eventualities the planes are packed like "cocoons," in air tight skin.

Pedestrians Warned To Use Extra Care 6 To 7 P.M.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 1.—A warning to pedestrians to be extra careful in traffic between 6 and 7 p. m. during December and January, was issued today by The Street and Traffic Safety Lighting Bureau, national information service on traffic accidents and crime after dark.

Pedestrian deaths, the Bureau warns, are 4 times as great for the hour between 6 and 7 p. m. in each of the two months—December and January—as the average per month for the other nine months of the year with the exception of November.

Low Visibility
The cause of this high pedestrian fatality rate in December and January is the low visibility during winter when this hour is dark compared with the other nine months when the hour is light, according to the Bureau. Existing street lighting is inadequate to compensate for the loss of daylight visibility and pedestrians forget to modify their traffic habits accordingly.

Until the needed street lighting improvement is installed to protect pedestrians in dark-hour traffic, the only safe-guard, the Bureau says, is EXTRA CARE on the part of both pedestrians and motorists. Not only is the hour of 6 to 7 p. m. four times as fatal during winter, due to insufficient light for safe visibility, but the two months of December and January are the year's worst dark-hour pedestrian killers. The per cent of pedestrian deaths during darkness for each month is 78 and 80, respectively. Of the 35,048 total traffic deaths predicted for this year, 12,272 will be pedestrians and 20,488 of the total deaths will occur after dark, according to Bureau estimates.

Plans are being made for excavation of the buried palace of King Nestor, one of the best known rulers of Homeric Greece.

THE LUNCH BOX

Baskets were made before boxes. When Granddad's father was a boy he had a dinner basket.

After a while it got to be a dinner pail. Then it was a lunch box pretty soon.

The lunch is the important part anyhow. Mom has to be pretty foxy to pack a good lunch every day. She figures on some protein and some starch and some fat. She figures on vitamins and minerals, too.

Then after she gets all that figured out she makes things taste good.

If Dad doesn't eat it all she is worried. She puts a little surprise in pretty often.

Butch likes to meet Dad when he comes home from work and get something from the lunch box. It tastes better that way.

COMMISSIONER IN VENANGO SUICIDES

OIL CITY, Pa., Dec. 1.—(INS)—Deputy Coroner Theodore S. Gabreski reported today that J. Frank Horner, 57, a Venango county commissioner, shot himself to death Sunday in the basement of his home in nearby Cranberry. Horner was serving his second term as county commissioner. He suffered a stroke last summer, and was not a candidate for re-election last month.

Quincy, Mass., is one of the oldest permanent settlements in the state. It was settled in 1625 as Mount Wallaston.

PLAN BURIAL OF BUTLER EXECUTIVE

BUTLER, Pa., Dec. 1.—(INS)—Private funeral services will be held in Butler Tuesday for Francis H. Fenn, 49, president and general manager of the American Bantam Car company, who died Saturday in a Butler hospital.

and was a director of several other corporations.

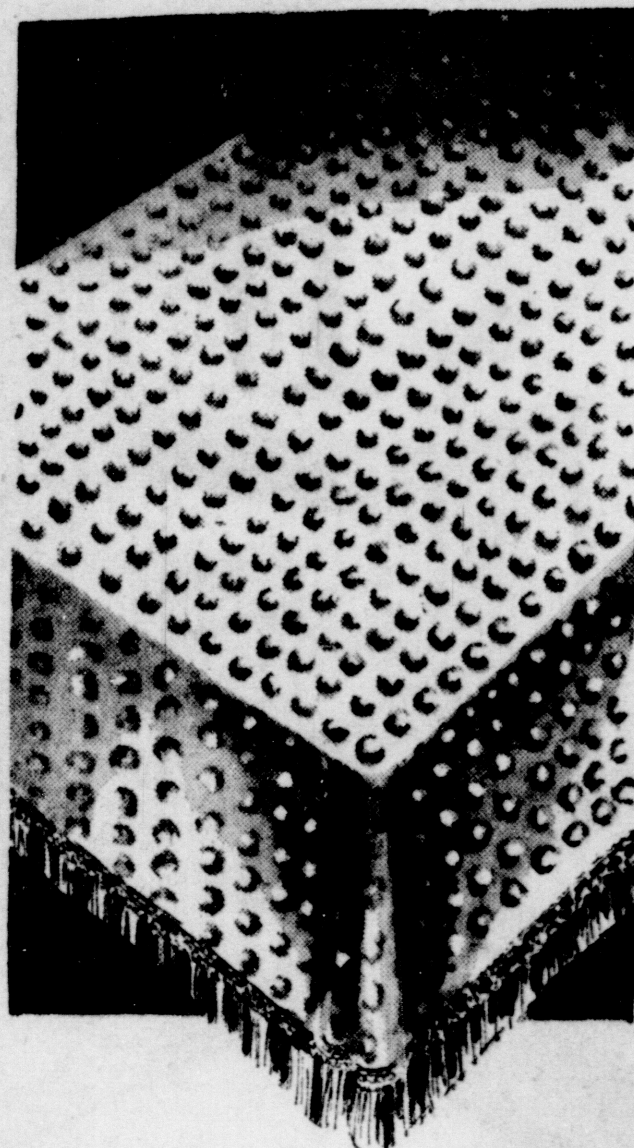

He served as a lieutenant commander on a submarine during the first World War.

Senator Butler Against Return Of U.S. Controls

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Sen. Butler (R) Neb., predicts that the nation's commodity exchanges will cooperate to curb inflationary speculation without the government control over margins asked by President Truman.

The grain-belt senator declared himself against a "return to controls" as senate and house committees resumed public hearings today on the president's 10-point anti-inflation program. Butler declared:

"The commodity exchanges, in the final analysis, have never failed to cooperate with the government. They couldn't afford to do otherwise. If they ever refused, there would be overwhelming support for immediate congressional action."

Three cabinet officers are scheduled for the day's hearings. They are Secretary of Interior Krug before the joint economic committee, and Labor Secretary Schwellenbach.

Police Make Two Raids Early Sunday

Police headed by Lieutenant George S. Kennedy, conducted two raids early Sunday morning, one at the rear of 110 East Long avenue, where an alleged card game was in progress and the other at 1207 1/2 South Mill street, where it was alleged a dice game was played.

George Oprean was accused of being the proprietor of the place at 110 East Long avenue. He put up a forfeit of $25, and each of the four visitors placed a forfeit of $10, for a hearing in police court, Monday. However, none appeared. Mayor John F. Haven ordered that a further investigation be conducted to ascertain if Oprean was the actual proprietor.

Andy Marmo was accused of being the proprietor at 1207 1/2 South Mill street, known as the South Side Sportsman's club. He placed a forfeit of $100, and nine visitors placed forfeits of $10. However, none appeared for a hearing this morning.

Burglars Enter Service Station

Hit Bros. service station, North Jefferson street, was entered by burglars some time after four a. m. today, the burglary having been discovered by Bucky Jones, co-owner of the station.

A cigarette machine was broken into and candy taken. Efforts to enter the safe were futile.

The burglars jimmied a door on the south side of the structure. Policeman Thomas Farrow reported to headquarters he had checked the building at four a. m. and everything was normal.

Leechburg Youth Killed Accidentally By Muzzle-Loader

LEECHBURG, Pa., Dec. 1.—(INS)—Police today blamed a charge wedged in an old muzzle-loading gun many years for the death of David Lee Bills, 12, of Leechburg.

They said David and a brother, Russell, 14, found two old guns where they had been stored for years by their grandfather. Each took a gun and fired a copper percussion cap to watch the flash in a darkened room.

When Russell turned on the light he found his brother slumped on the floor with a bullet wound in his head.

The boys' mother, Mrs. Catherine Bills, told police her father never had been able to remove the jammed charge from the old gun.

Dear Quota Members:

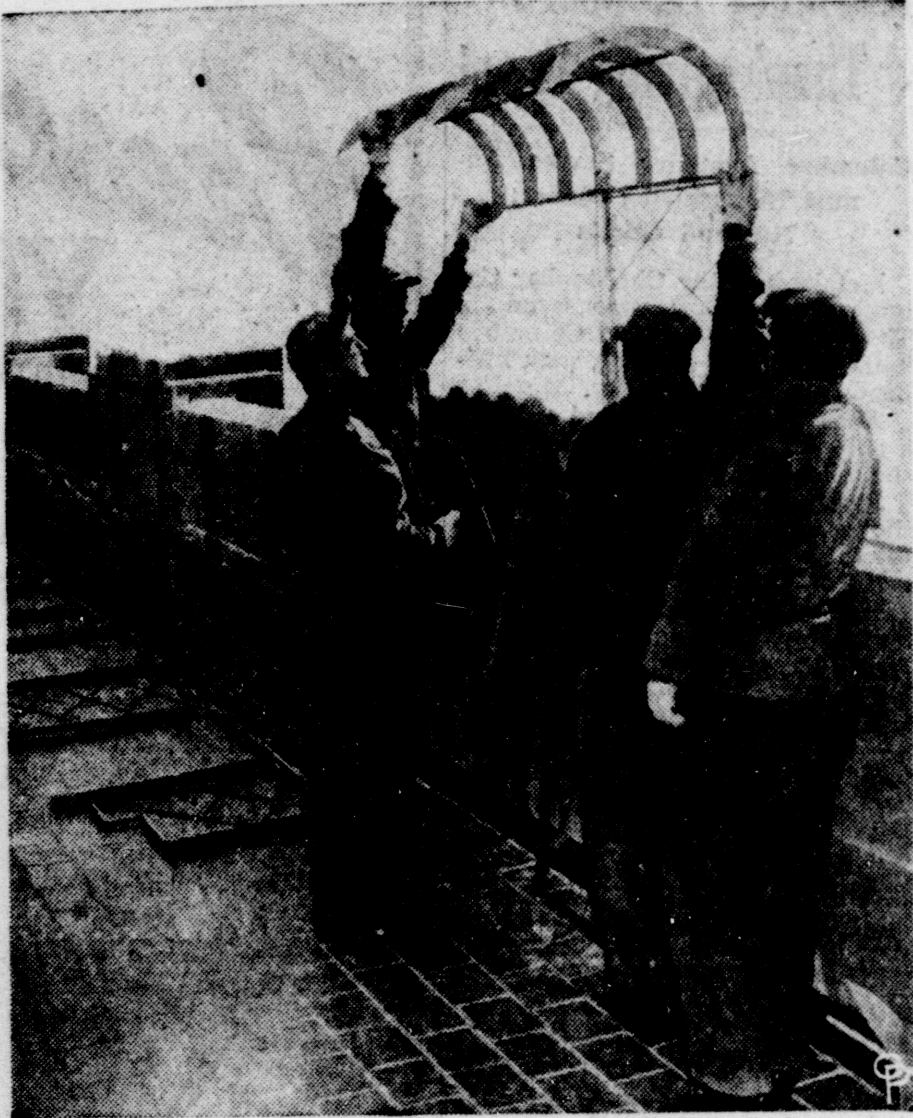

We will meet for dinner in The Castleton at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Elizabeth H. Williams, Sec'y.

Admiral Blandy Named Commander Of Atlantic Area

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Defense Secretary Forrestal today appointed Adm. W. H. P. Blandy as commander of all U. S. forces in the Atlantic area.

The appointment will consolidate American armed forces in the area in one unified command. Blandy will continue as commander of the Atlantic fleet and will control all U. S. naval forces except units assigned to the Caribbean command and to eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean forces.

Forrestal's announcement said: "Admiral Blandy's new designation as commander in chief, Atlantic, will not carry with it, at the present time, control over materially larger forces than formerly."

"However, the creation of the unified command will fix the responsibility for all major planning for the area on the commander-in-chief, Atlantic, and, in addition, will place under his command units which may in the future be assigned to that area."

Impeded Workers Outstrip Others

CHICAGO, (INS)—It is the experienced observation of one Chicago bicycle manufacturing company that an employee with a physical handicap usually produces more than his unhandicapped fellow-workers.

The Arnold Schwinn and Co. which will employ a handicapped person immediately if it has a job he can do, can speak with authority.

The company employs both types of workers—yet results show that the handicapped person far outdistances the non-handicapped in work output.

Company representatives pointed out Ivan Lundh, who at the age of 35 lost sight of both eyes. Lundh assembles small-flange front hubs, a job demanding great precision. Yet he has steadily outstripped and output of all the sighted employees doing the same operation.

Delay In Building New Arts College

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Paul Mellons' plan to back a revolutionary-type liberal arts college has received a setback.

A delay of at least one year in the construction of the new school is anticipated. The high cost of building, which has trebled the proposed construction costs, was blamed.

Mellons announced last August he would grant a four and a half million dollar endowment to support the school which will be located at Stockbridge, Mass.

The curriculum will be patterned after St. John's college in Annapolis, Md. Study is based primarily on discussion of the great books of all time.

The largest Indian reservation in New York state is located near Gowanda, Cattaraugus county.

Sale Of Two Radio Stations Approved

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(INS)—The Federal Communications Commission has approved the sale of two radio stations owned by J. David Stern's Philadelphia Record to the Bulletin company and announced a series of station exchanges in that area.

Under the arrangement Stern sold his WCAU standard station and WCAU-FM to the Bulletin.

The F.C.C. did not disclose the purchase price, but it presumably included the $4,500,000 paid Stern for the record company by the Bulletin.

The commission said that in order for the Bulletin to accept Stern's two stations the Bulletin had to dispose of its William Penn Broadcasting Co., which it sold to the Sun Ray Drug Co. for $800,000.

Frightening New Weapon Is Disclosed

FORT MONMOUTH, N. J., Dec. 1. (INS) — A frightening new weapon that kills without being seen or heard by man was disclosed in part to the world today by the U. S. Army.

The fabulous weapon is a siren which generates sound waves in ultra-high frequencies, far beyond the range of the human ear. The army announcement said that the waves killed mice in one minute, burned the hands of experimenters when they invaded the sound field, and caused loss of equilibrium and dizziness among persons exposed to radiation.

The cautiously-worded army statement gave no indication of the weapon's potential use in warfare.

The sound waves, in addition to killing mice in 60 seconds, also dealt swift death to such animal life as cockroaches, mosquitoes, caterpillars, meal worms, blow flies and firebrats.

The army announcement said the supersonic principle still is considered an unknown quantity but that its properties "no doubt will be brought out through continued research."

Report Russians Are Perfecting New 'Death Ray'

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 1.—(INS)—The Berlingske Tidende, in a Berlin dispatch, reported today that the Russians now have an infra-red "death ray" and are constructing a "defense carpet" of such beams about strategic Soviet areas.

I. B. Noerlund, the paper's Berlin correspondent, said this and other sensational Russian weapons are being developed further from German inventions and "brains" captured after the Nazi's surrender.

German scientists and generals are said to be behind the Soviet Union's experiments in laboratories some 10 miles from Moscow.

As a result of these experiments, Noerlund said, the Russians are now able to send for 15 to 20 kilometers (10 to 12 1/2 miles) rays of "devouring heat".

A few seconds after the beam touches an object the target supposedly bursts into flame, quickly melting or evaporating.

Noerlund said the Russians at present are busy erecting a network of stations capable of cross-cutting the frontier with these infra-red death rays.

Optimists Bid Leader Farewell

Members of the Optimist club and their wives gathered in an out-of-town restaurant Friday evening and held their testimonial dinner honoring Al Garren, retiring president, whose duties as an employee of the Pennsylvania Power company will take him away from New Castle.

Mr. Garren was presented with a handsome gift and his wife was similarly honored by the Optimists' organization.

Otto Pearsall will serve as president of the club until the next election of officers. This Thursday night the club will go over last-minute plans for the all-star basketball game which will bring the Westminster Titans here to play an all-star team of the city, December 29.

Presbyterian Class Dinner Postponed

Because of renovations, which are in progress at the First Presbyterian church, the annual dinner of the McKinney Bible class, which is taught by City Solicitor Robert M. White, has been postponed from Thursday, December 4 until Friday, December 12.

A good program is being arranged for the occasion, which will follow the usual fine turkey dinner.

Special Session Seems Unlikely

No Indication That State Legislature Will Get Special Summons

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Dec. 1.—(INS)—The next regular session of the General Assembly will not convene for 13 months but there seems little likelihood that a special session will be forced upon Governor Duff. . . . The only assemblyman who has publicly forecast an extraordinary meeting is Rep. Baker Royer (R) Lancaster, chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee. . . . However, he side-stepped disclosing his reasons for a special session. . . . Expenditures and collections under the billion-dollar budget set up for the Commonwealth during the current biennium ending May 31, 1949, have been as expected by financial officials. . . . About the only event that would probably force a special meeting would be invalidation of the soft drink tax enacted by the legislature during the 1947 session. . . . The $35,000,000 expected to be collected by the levy has been earmarked for hospital improvements. . . . Invalidation of the tax would force the governor to decide whether to postpone the improvements or call a special session to get the money from another source.

Since 1791, there have been only 24 special sessions. . . . Prior to that date the legislature met under the constitution of 1776 and was in session the greater part of each year. . . . Eleven of the special meetings have been called since 1926. . . . The last one was in 1944 when the legislature was summoned by Governor Martin to enact the soldier voting law which became a model for other states. . . . Lawmakers receive $500 for special meetings in addition to the $3,000 a biennium salary. . . . During the 1947 meeting they voted themselves $100-a-month "expense accounts."

The Pennsylvania manual, handbook of the Commonwealth's government, reports that the three original counties established in 1682 in the state were Philadelphia, Bucks and Chester. . . . Philadelphia was named for a Biblical city in Asia minor. . . . Bucks was a contraction of Buckinghamshire in England and Chester was derived from Cheshire in England. . . . Two of Pennsylvania's 67 counties were named for women. . . . They were Huntingdon, for Selina Hastings, Countess of Huntingdon, and Montour, for Madame Montour, a famous Indian interpreter. . . . Huntingdon was founded in 1787 and Montour in 1850. . . . Twelve counties were given names stemming from Indian titles. . . . Among them was Lackawanna, from the Delaware Indian name, Lechauchanne. . . . Dauphin county drew its name from the hereditary title of the eldest son of French kings while Luzerne was named for the Chevalier Luzerne. . . . Adams, Jefferson, Monroe and Washington counties were named for Presidents of the United States. . . . Lackawanna was the last county established in the state. . . . The year was 1878.

Governor Duff may be ousted from one of his lesser posts shortly after the new year comes in. . . . In addition to his job as the state's chief executive, he also—in name at least—holds the position as solicitor of his home town, Carnegie borough, Allegheny county. . . . During the November 4 balloting Democrats carried the local elections and they reportedly are scouting around for a new solicitor. . . . Since his appointment as attorney general under Governor Edward Martin, Duff's duties as borough solicitor have been performed by a substitute.

County Cagers To Start On Tuesday

Seven Quintets Open Campaigns

Pre-Season Grind To Give Coaches View Of Their Outfits In Action

Make way for the lanky lad in the short pants, his eyes on the hoops and a big basketball nestling in his palm.

Believe it or not, another cage season is upon us, and Tuesday eve, seven of the county's school-boy outfits will hit the hardwood in warm-up tilts.

These are the contests designed to reveal to the coaches just what they have in the way of floor material for the coming sectional trays and will afford the baptism of fire that molds veterans and newcomers into top-flight performers.

Six Games Offered

Six games are on the docket. Mt. Jackson, starting under a new tutor, "Frankie" Webster, will entertain Freedom high's Oilers, Union goes to Ellwood City in an interesting scrap. Darlington invades Bessemer, East Brook is at Slippery Rock, New Wilmington journeys to West Middlesex and Plaingrove, also under a new mentor, Bill Robertson, will be at Penn Township.

The "Groovers" have dropped out of the North Butler county loop and will play an independent card this season.

Friday night more action is promised as Wampum's defending champions of the class "B" bracket, sends its graduation-riddled array against Monaca, and Princeton ends the swim against Zelenople.

There are three new coaching faces in the county this winter, the aforementioned Webster and Robertson, and Clarence Ruthrauff, who is piloting the East Brook high "Eagles."

New Castle will not start its arduous schedule until Dec. 9 when the Hurricane meets Youngstown East at George Washington high floor.

Two City-County Battles Tonight, Meeting Tuesday

Vets Play Forest A.C. In First Game Tonight, Johnson-Bronze-Shenango In Nightcap

Two more torrid ball games in the newly created City-County floor league at the Arena will be played tonight. The first game at 7:30 o'clock will pit the Forest A.C. against the VFW 315 team, and at 9 o'clock the Johnson-Bronze and Shenango "Y" will battle.

Fans are assured of seeing two good teams tonight as the teams are about evenly matched. Several good games have been played in the loop to date, the Bessemer Legion leading with two wins and no defeats.

Meeting Tuesday

Prices for the league games at the Arena are 25 cents in the balcony and 50 cents on the first floor.

There will be a meeting of all managers at the Arena Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The purpose of the meetings is to discuss the league to date and turn in player lists of 15 men. An eighth team is still being sought for the loop. Secretary Stanley Shaw announced.

A "must" task for Louisiana State coach Bernie Moore is the development of some new placekickers. All three of the boys who handled that chore this season are seniors.

Penguins Top Elks 45 To 40

Inability To Shoot Fouls Costs Locals Game At Washington Floor Saturday

Inability at the foul line cost the Elks Club basketball team a victory over the Youngstown College Penguins Saturday night at the Washington High floor, the latter team winning 45 to 40 in a thriller.

The Elks made but 6 out of 19 free throws, as they dropped the third straight of the year to three of the best college fives in this section of the country. Youngstown on the other hand made 9 out of 13 on the charity lane and that made the difference, as only one field goal separated the two teams, the Ohioans, having 18, the locals 17.

Elks Lead First Period

Starting out fast and dropping them in from all angles, the Paul Morrison coached Elks took the lead at 12 to 6 as the first period closed. The Pitzer brothers, Fran and Bob, led the locals in tallying. Youngstown started clicking in the second period and led at the halftime mark, 21 to 16, mainly through the stellar work of Steve Geregy and Gibson. The Elks could get but four points in the second period, missing many tough luck shots.

Play was closer in the third period, the Elks doing a lot better getting 10 and the visitors 11, the third period closing 32 to 26 with the Penguins still leading.

Elks Finish Fast

Putting on a fast finish in the final period the Elks outscored the Ohioans, 14 to 13, but fell short by five points due to the very lean second period. It was a fast and furious ball game in the final few minutes, the Elks slowly closing the gap, but Geregy and Gibson, with the help of Christen, kept in the van.

Fran and Bob Pitzer each had 15 points to be the high men on the Elks team, with Geregy and Gibson the Youngstown stars, the former with 17 to be high man in the game.

In the preliminary game the Coach Pat Patterson Elks Reserves edged the Youngstown Reserves, 28 to 26, in a thriller-diller, slam-bang battle.

Mt. Jackson Floor Outlook Seems Dim

"Fran" Webster, New Cage Mentor Has But One Regular Back For Campaign; Illness Sidelines Bill Emery, Star Forward; Open Tuesday With Freedom.

"Frankie" Webster, the new cage coach at Mt. Jackson high school, is facing an overwhelming task in prepping his "Mounties" for the rigors of the Section 23 campaign this season.

Only Wendell Butler, senior captain, returns from last winter's quint, and coupled with this paucity of lettermen is the bad news surrounding the case of Bill Emery, star forward, who has been sidelined with illness. "Butler Bill", all-county in 1946-47, has just gotten over pneumonia and has been prohibited by his doctor to play the sport.

Mad Scramble
With Butler ready for either guard or forward duty, the remaining four posts are a mad scramble.

Here are the boys trying for berths:
Glen Gwin, Sam Ralston, Jimmy Gibson, Del Booher, Howie Mars, seniors; Ed Brandt, Bruce Brown, Wayne Emery, Ted McCreary and Loyd Rainey, juniors; Bob McCullough and Dick Martin, sophoms., and one freshman, Pat Kerr.

The "Mounties" will test their attack against Freedom tomorrow night at home and then will play Fairfield, Dec. 5, away; Evans City, Dec. 11, home; Springfield, Dec. 13, away; Alumni, Dec. 23; Evans City, away; Dec. 30, and Freedom, away, Jan. 2.

The loop inaugural will be against Shenango at home, Jan. 6.

Church League Action Continues

Six more junior church league games were played Saturday night at the "Y" floor, with the following results: Croton 32, First U. P. 22; First Methodist, 25, St. Paul, 16; Third U. P., 30, First Christian, 20; S. S. Alliance, 22, Trinity, 18; St. George, 19, Epworth, 12. The First Baptists won from the First Presbyterians via a forfeit.

Tonight the Civic-Industrial league will pry off the lid, with the first game slated for 7:15.

SCORE IS 21-0 IN VITAL GAME

Yankees Take Eastern Title Of AAC By Whipping Bills, 35 To 13

Coach Jack Sutherland's battered Steelers saw their division lead of the NFL go poof Sunday as they were trounced, 21-0 by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Playing without the services of four of their best men, notably Johnny (Zero) Clement, the Rooney C. boys were never in the ball game. The Philly line played savage defensive ball and their great runner Steve Van Buren was in fine form.

The Steelers still have a mathematical chance at the toga, however. They have one more game—against Boston, while the Eagles must meet the Cards and the Packers.

Heavyweights On Wednesday's Card

Indications Point To A Slug-fest When Wolfe Battles Faietta

Heavyweight fights are either good or bad. The Dempsey-Firpo battle was sensational while the Louis-Baer fight was a flop, but indications point to a real slugfest when Eddie Faietta of Steubenville battles George Wolfe of Youngstown here Wednesday night.

Ronzi and Faietta fought the main bout here recently and Riz won, but not before Eddie landed what almost proved a lethal right to the jaw in the third chapter.

George Wolfe scored a three round decision over Guy Elisco, local heavyweight, in a blistering fight and Wolfe expects to repeat over the champion of Steubenville.

AL TATE WINS ILLINI LETTER

Big Al Tate, one of the great linemen produced at the senior high school here, and star tackle of the 1946 Red Hurricane eleven, has received his frosh grid letter at the University of Illinois.

Al is spending his holiday vacation at his home in the city, and looks in the pink of condition. He tips the beams at over 200 pounds and is anxious for a shot at a berth with the Big Nine school's varsity squad in '48.

He played regularly with the frosh eleven this fall and was a standout performer.

Universal Team Meets Tonight

Members of the Universal Pottery baseball team will have a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Station Inn and then go to the club rooms for a meeting to discuss business matters. All players attending must bring their equipment to be checked in, it was announced by William Domenick, president of the Bears.

NEW CASTLE RIFLE CLUB WINS MATCH

In their last shoot, against the Butler team, the New Castle Rifle club won by a score of 1171 to 1144. Individual scores were: Thomas, 245; Carrigan, 232; Davidson, 231; Johns, 231; Bowers, 229.

The next match for the locals will be held Dec. 22 against Beaver Valley.

JOE WANTS QUICK K. O.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis hopes to finish Jersey Joe Walcott off quickly in their 15-round title bout at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The Brown Bomber's only plan of attack today was to "get things over as soon as possible."

The Camden, N. J., challenger, a 1 to 8 underdog, hopes to stymie Louis by bobbing and weaving around him.

U.S.C. Holds Answer To Michigan-N. Dame National Supremacy

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(INS)—A football game Dec. 6 and another on New Year's day will finally decide which club is the best in football this season, and the final outcome on the speculation will be determined by comparative scores.

They tell you not to pay any attention to comparative scores because if you do somebody can prove that Columbia University won World War II. You know the old gag—so and so beat so and so and finally Columbia beat Army which beat the Germans and the Japs and so coach Lou Little is therefore emperor of the entire world.

However, Notre Dame and Michigan are running neck and neck as the outstanding teams in the nation as a result of their perfect seasons to date.

Their relative worth will be established and proved when finally they meet a concluding and final common foe, Southern California.

Notre Dame takes a crack at the coast eleven Saturday. Michigan will get its chance against that eleven in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day.

If Michigan beats Southern California by a wider margin in the grand finale than Notre Dame can run up Saturday you will have a hard time convincing anybody that Michigan isn't a better team than the Rambling Irish.

The Rambling Irish by this time seem to realize the good chance that they are going to wind up running second to Michigan in the national standings, and as a result turned on the heat against Tulane for the first time this season.

Notre Dame beat Tulane 59 to 6, while Michigan was getting a tussle seemingly from Ohio State to win by 21 to 0.

The previous week Notre Dame squeezed through against Northwestern while Michigan poured the heat on Wisconsin, and with that Michigan climbed to the top of the national standings.

Michigan is all through now with the regular season while Notre Dame has that Southern California game, but Michigan then gets its chance for rebuttal in the speculation over whether Michigan or Notre Dame is stronger by having played itself into the post-season tussle with Southern California.

You can bet all the money you can find on one thing, if you are a gambling man. And that is on the proposition that Notre Dame will beat Southern California as bad as possible, if at all, and Michigan then will do the same thing.

From here it looks as though Southern California played good enough football in its own sector to get into the Rose Bowl, but still will finish the season in what might be termed a blaze of unglory.

Notre Dame and Michigan will be the favorites over the coast eleven.

(International News Service Sports Editor)

Nittany Lions Dominate Grid Teams In State

(By International News Service)

Intercollegiate football bowed out of Pennsylvania today—with one notable exception.

Penn State was getting ready for its Cotton Bowl game with Southern Methodist at Dallas, Tex., New Year's Day. But otherwise, everything was quiet on the state's football front.

Pitt wound up the most disastrous football season in its history on a sour note last Saturday, in the only scheduled game in the state.

The Panthers lost their first game in 19 years to West Virginia, 17-2. The Mountaineers did it the easy way. They scored all their points in the first half and then coasted along, with Pitt getting its two points on a safety on the last play of the game.

Penn bowed out last Thursday with a 21-0 victory over Cornell, finishing the season with one tie, 7-7 with Army, the only thing marring an otherwise perfect record in an eight-game schedule.

Penn State finished its perfect season the week before.

STAGS SELL HALBERT
CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Chuck Halbert, Chicago Stags basketball center, was sold today to the Philadelphia Warriors for $7,500 in a straight cash deal.

Officials of the Chicago club said Halbert, who is six feet, nine inches tall, would report immediately to the Warriors. They added that the 28-year-old player would be replaced by Jack Toomey, who formerly played for the college of the Pacific.

Halbert averaged 12.7 points per game last year in 61 basketball Association of America contests.

HER GRID TEAM HAS FINE YEAR

HARRISBURG, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Coach Ruth Fretwell and her West Fairview High school grid squad looked back today over a fairly successful season including only one loss in nine starts.

Mrs. Fretwell, who took over the football chores when no male teachers were available to coach, sent her team against Mt. Washington High school of Baltimore, Md., Saturday and walked off with a 25-0 victory to end the season.

Status Of Kern Is Same Despite Gridder Petition

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 1.—(INS)—The status of Bill Kern, resigned football coach at West Virginia University, remained unchanged today, despite a petition signed by 22 members of the Mountaineer grid squad asking that he be retained.

Kern resigned last week, effective next June 30. Last Saturday, after the Mountaineers defeated Pitt, 17-2, the petition asking his retention and also asking that Athletic Director Roy M. (Legs) Hawley be fired, was circulated in the team's dressing room.

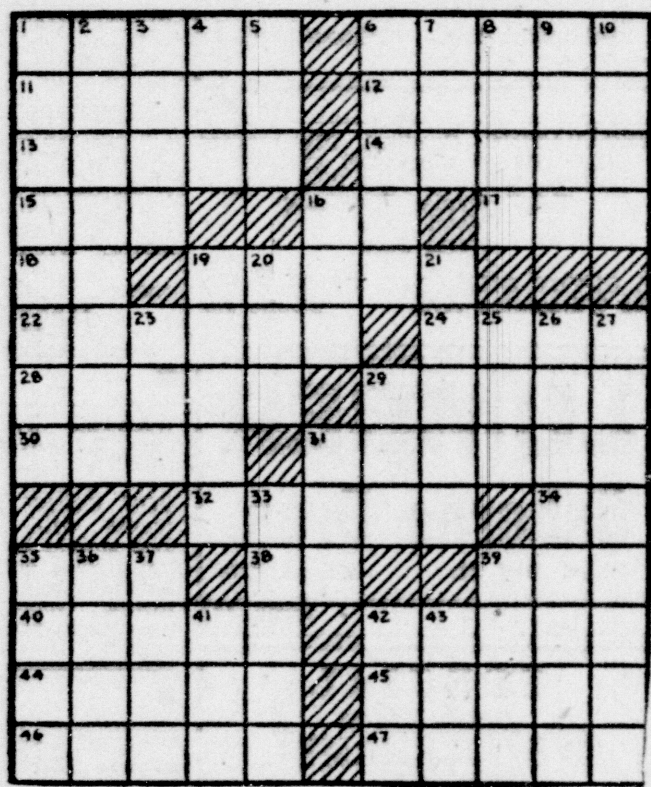

President Irvin Stewart of the University said last night: "The athletic situation is the same as before the game. Coach Kern resigned before the game and his resignation was accepted."

"If the petition is presented to me, I shall refer it to the athletic council for its consideration along with all other information relating to the vacancy."

Brown University will open its 1948 football season against Yale University and end a nine-game schedule against Colgate University on Thanksgiving Day.

UNDERTONE IN MARKET FIRM

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Stocks had a firm undertone in forenoon trading today but small volume ruled out other than minor, irregular improvement. First hour turnover totaled only 160,000 shares.

Most pivotal industrials advanced readily on the meager demand. U. S. Steel and Bethlehem Steel both ran more than a half point better. Motors were irregular with Chrysler up fractionally. Rails and utilities hovered near Saturday's closes.
